

Lesley Hall Leadership Award

Maurice Corcoran AM, SA Winner 2016

Maurice Corcoran has been an advocate for people with disability for more than 30 years. In 2006 he was made a member of the Order of Australia for his sustained service to people with disability and contribution to the development of national standards for Accessible Public Transport.

He played a key role in the development of the National Disability Strategy, and has worked tirelessly to break down barriers, increase recognition and challenge issues facing people with disability.

Maurice is passionate about access to public transport for people with disability. From 1994-2000, he was the National Disability Representative on the national taskforce on Accessible Public Transport Standards and the Federal Attorney-General's Steering Committee on Accessible Public Transport.

Maurice has received a National Award from the Human Rights and Equal Opportunity Commission for his work on developing transport standards.
